

North Pole Post

Hello

It's me, your Elf, I'm back to play,
I've missed you while waiting for this day.

Now Santa knows exactly what you've been up to this year, seeing all you've done fills him with cheer,

He told me to tell you the results are in,
You've made it onto the good list, because of how amazing you've been.

So I've been sent here to keep a close eye on you,
I'll report back to Santa about all that you do,

And then once Christmas is here,
I'll vanish away for another year.

So let's have some fun while I'm here,
I hope to make you laugh wherever I appear!

Your Elf Friend
